| ESV | Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| NIV | Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| NLT | So let us celebrate the festival, not with the old bread of wickedness and evil, but with the new bread of sincerity and truth.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
