| 1  | In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, "Understand that you and your men are to go out with me in the army."                                  |
| 2  | David said to Achish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant can do." And Achish said to David, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."                                                              |
| 3  | Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the necromancers out of the land.                                                      |
| 4  | The Philistines assembled and came and encamped at Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa.                                                                                                  |
| 5  | When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.                                                                                                                              |
| 6  | And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets.                                                                                                         |
| 7  | Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, there is a medium at En-dor."                               |
| 8  | So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went, he and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine for me by a spirit and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you." |
| 9  | The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the necromancers from the land. Why then are you laying a trap for my life to bring about my death?"                    |
| 10 | But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."                                                                                                              |
| 11 | Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me."                                                                                                                               |
| 12 | When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul."                                                                                      |
| 13 | The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth."                                                                                       |
| 14 | He said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid homage.            |

|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 15 | Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams. Therefore I have summoned you to tell me what I shall do." |
| 16 | And Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy?"                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 17 | The LORD has done to you as he spoke by me, for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18 | Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.                                                                                                                                                    |
| 19 | Moreover, the LORD will give Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me. The LORD will give the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines."                                                                                               |
| 20 | Then Saul fell at once full length on the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.                                                                                                                             |
| 21 | And the woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "Behold, your servant has obeyed you. I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to what you have said to me.                                                                                                        |
| 22 | Now therefore, you also obey your servant. Let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."                                                                                                                                                                |
| 23 | He refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him, and he listened to their words. So he arose from the earth and sat on the bed.                                                                                                                                      |
| 24 | Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly killed it, and she took flour and kneaded it and baked unleavened bread of it,                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 25 | and she put it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| 3  | Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own town of Ramah. Saul had expelled the mediums and spiritists from the land.                           |
| 4  | The Philistines assembled and came and set up camp at Shunem, while Saul gathered all the Israelites and set up camp at Gilboa.                                                        |
| 5  | When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror filled his heart.                                                                                                             |
| 6  | He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams or Urim or prophets.                                                                                                |
| 7  | Saul then said to his attendants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, so I may go and inquire of her. There is one in Endor," they said.                                                 |
| 8  | So Saul disguised himself, putting on other clothes, and at night he and two men went to the woman. "Consult a spirit for me," he said, "and bring up for me the one I name."          |
| 9  | But the woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done. He has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why have you set a trap for my life to bring about my death?" |
| 10 | Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished for this."                                                                                       |
| 11 | Then the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you? Bring up Samuel," he said.                                                                                                       |
| 12 | When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!"                                                           |
| 13 | The king said to her, "Don't be afraid. What do you see?" The woman said, "I see a spirit coming up out of the ground."                                                                |

|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14 | "What does he look like?" he asked. "An old man wearing a robe is coming up," she said. Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.                                                                                                 |
| 15 | Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up? I am in great distress," Saul said. "The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned away from me. He no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what to do." |
| 16 | Samuel said, "Why do you consult me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and become your enemy?"                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 17 | The LORD has done what he predicted through me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to one of your neighbors—to David.                                                                                                                                             |
| 18 | Because you did not obey the LORD or carry out his fierce wrath against the Amalekites, the LORD has done this to you today.                                                                                                                                                                |
| 19 | The LORD will hand over both Israel and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines."                                                                                                        |
| 20 | Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of Samuel's words. His strength was gone, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.                                                                                                                        |
| 21 | When the woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly shaken, she said, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do.                                                                                                                |
| 22 | Now please listen to your servant and let me give you some food so you may eat and have the strength to go on your way."                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 23 | He refused and said, "I will not eat." But his men joined the woman in urging him, and he listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the couch.                                                                                                                                 |
| 24 | The woman had a fattened calf at the house, which she butchered at once. She took some flour, kneaded it and baked bread without yeast.                                                                                                                                                     |
| 25 | Then she set it before Saul and his men, and they ate. That same night they got up and left.                                                                                                                                                                                                |

| 1  | About that time the Philistines mustered their armies for another war with Israel. King Achish told David, "You and your men will be expected to join me in battle."                                                                                |
| 2  | "Very well!" David agreed. "Now you will see for yourself what we can do." Then Achish told David, "I will make you my personal bodyguard for life."                                                                                                |
| 3  | Meanwhile, Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him. He was buried in Ramah, his hometown. And Saul had banned from the land of Israel all mediums and those who consult the spirits of the dead.                                        |
| 4  | The Philistines set up their camp at Shunem, and Saul gathered all the army of Israel and camped at Gilboa.                                                                                                                                         |
| 5  | When Saul saw the vast Philistine army, he became frantic with fear.                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 6  | He asked the LORD what he should do, but the LORD refused to answer him, either by dreams or by sacred lots or by the prophets.                                                                                                                     |
| 7  | Saul then said to his advisers, "Find a woman who is a medium, so I can go and ask her what to do." His advisers replied, "There is a medium at Endor."                                                                                             |
| 8  | So Saul disguised himself by wearing ordinary clothing instead of his royal robes. Then he went to the woman's home at night, accompanied by two of his men. "I have to talk to a man who has died," he said. "Will you call up his spirit for me?" |
| 9  | "Are you trying to get me killed?" the woman demanded. "You know that Saul has outlawed all the mediums and all who consult the spirits of the dead. Why are you setting a trap for me?"                                                            |
| 10 | But Saul took an oath in the name of the LORD and promised, "As surely as the LORD lives, nothing bad will happen to you for doing this."                                                                                                           |
| 11 | Finally, the woman said, "Well, whose spirit do you want me to call up?" "Call up Samuel," Saul replied.                                                                                                                                            |
| 12 | When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed, "You've deceived me! You are Saul!"                                                                                                                                                                        |

|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 | "Don't be afraid!" the king told her. "What do you see?" "I see a god coming up out of the earth," she said.                                                                                                                                                      |
| 14 | "What does he look like?" Saul asked. "He is an old man wrapped in a robe," she replied. Saul realized it was Samuel, and he fell to the ground before him.                                                                                                       |
| 15 | "Why have you disturbed me by calling me back?" Samuel asked Saul. "Because I am in deep trouble," Saul replied. "The Philistines are at war with me, and God has left me and won't reply by prophets or dreams. So I have called for you to tell me what to do." |
| 16 | But Samuel replied, "Why ask me, since the LORD has left you and has become your enemy?"                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 17 | The LORD has done just as he said he would. He has torn the kingdom from you and given it to your rival, David.                                                                                                                                                   |
| 18 | The LORD has done this to you today because you refused to carry out his fierce anger against the Amalekites.                                                                                                                                                     |
| 19 | What's more, the LORD will hand you and the army of Israel over to the Philistines tomorrow, and you and your sons will be here with me. The LORD will bring down the entire army of Israel in defeat."                                                           |
| 20 | Saul fell full length on the ground, paralyzed with fright because of Samuel's words. He was also faint with hunger, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.                                                                                              |
| 21 | When the woman saw how distraught he was, she said, "Sir, I obeyed your command at the risk of my life.                                                                                                                                                           |
| 22 | Now do what I say, and let me give you a little something to eat so you can regain your strength for the trip back."                                                                                                                                              |
| 23 | But Saul refused. The men who were with him also urged him to eat, so he finally yielded and got up from the ground and sat on the couch.                                                                                                                         |
| 24 | The woman had been fattening a calf, so she hurried out and killed it. She took some flour, kneaded it into dough and baked unleavened bread.                                                                                                                     |
| 25 | She brought the meal to Saul and his men, and they ate it. Then they went out into the night.                                                                                                                                                                     |

| Before the New Testament, λόγος already had deep philosophical use. In Greek philosophy, λόγος was the rational principle that ordered the universe, the divine reason that structured all things. In Heraclitus, λόγος referred to the unifying rational principle behind the constant change in the world... οὗς                       | ἐλάλησάν                                              |

| 1  | And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men.           |
| 2  | And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.                                                                                     |
| 3  | Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.                                                    |
| 4  | And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.                                                                                             |
| 5  | And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.                                                                                                                                                    |
| 6  | And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.                                                                                                                                  |
| 7  | Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor.                            |
| 8  | And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. |
| 9  | And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?               |
| 10 | And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.                                                                                                                          |
| 11 | Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.                                                                                                                                                           |
| 12 | And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.                                                                                                   |

|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 | And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 14 | And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.                                                                                                                  |
| 15 | And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. |
| 16 | Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 17 | And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18 | Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 19 | Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.                                                                                                             |
| 20 | Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.                                                                                                                                   |
| 21 | And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.                                                                                                    |
| 22 | Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way.                                                                                                                                    |
| 23 | But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.                                                                                                                                              |
| 24 | And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 25 | And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
