| ESV | Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we.                                          |
| NIV | You are looking only on the surface of things. If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, he should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as he.                     |
| NLT | Look at the obvious facts. Those who say they belong to Christ must recognize that we belong to Christ as much as they do.                                                                 |
| KJV | Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. |
