| Hebrew | hebrew The Hebrew את word does not have a corresponding word in English. In Hebrew, it is a marker of the accusative, i.e. the word following it is the object of the sentence. It only ever occurs in conjunction with nouns associated with the definite article ה. Genesis 1:1 יִשְׂרָאֵל כָּל יְמֵי יְהוֹאָחָז |
| ESV    | Now Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| NIV    | Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| NLT    | King Hazael of Aram had oppressed Israel during the entire reign of King Jehoahaz.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
