- 1 After we were brought safely through, we then learned that the island was called Malta.
- The native people showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold.
- When Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand.
- When the native people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer. Though he has escaped from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live."
- 5 He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm.
- They were waiting for him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw no misfortune come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.
- Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us and entertained us hospitably for three days.
- 8 It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery. And Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him.
- And when this had taken place, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured.
- They also honored us greatly, and when we were about to sail, they put on board whatever we needed.
- After three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the twin gods as a figurehead.
- 12 Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days.

2025/11/08 13:04 19/23 Acts 28

- And from there we made a circuit and arrived at Rhegium. And after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.
- There we found brothers and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome.
- And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage.
- And when we came into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier that guarded him.
- After three days he called together the local leaders of the Jews, and when they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
- When they had examined me, they wished to set me at liberty, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case.
- But because the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar- though I had no charge to bring against my nation.
- For this reason, therefore, I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain."
- And they said to him, "We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you.
- But we desire to hear from you what your views are, for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."
- When they had appointed a day for him, they came to him at his lodging in greater numbers.
- From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.
- 24 And some were convinced by what he said, but others disbelieved.
- And disagreeing among themselves, they departed after Paul had made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:
- 26 "'Go to this people, and say, You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive.
- For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.'
- Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen."

29

- 30 He lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him,
- proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

- 24 Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe.
- They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: "The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your forefathers when he said through Isaiah the prophet:
- "'Go to this people and say, "You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."
- For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.'
- "Therefore I want you to know that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!"

- It was three months after the shipwreck that we set sail on another ship that had wintered at the island- an Alexandrian ship with the twin gods as its figurehead.
- 12 Our first stop was Syracuse, where we stayed three days.
- From there we sailed across to Rhegium. A day later a south wind began blowing, so the following day we sailed up the coast to Puteoli.
- There we found some believers, who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.
- The brothers and sisters in Rome had heard we were coming, and they came to meet us at the Forum on the Appian Way. Others joined us at The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.
- When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to have his own private lodging, though he was guarded by a soldier.
- Three days after Paul's arrival, he called together the local Jewish leaders. He said to them,

  "Brothers, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Roman government, even though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors.
- The Romans tried me and wanted to release me, because they found no cause for the death sentence.
- But when the Jewish leaders protested the decision, I felt it necessary to appeal to Caesar, even though I had no desire to press charges against my own people.
- l asked you to come here today so we could get acquainted and so I could explain to you that I am bound with this chain because I believe that the hope of Israel- the Messiah- has already come."
- They replied, "We have had no letters from Judea or reports against you from anyone who has come here.
- But we want to hear what you believe, for the only thing we know about this movement is that it is denounced everywhere."
- So a time was set, and on that day a large number of people came to Paul's lodging. He explained and testified about the Kingdom of God and tried to persuade them about Jesus from the Scriptures. Using the law of Moses and the books of the prophets, he spoke to them from morning until evening.
- 24 Some were persuaded by the things he said, but others did not believe.
- And after they had argued back and forth among themselves, they left with this final word from Paul: "The Holy Spirit was right when he said to your ancestors through Isaiah the prophet,
- 'Go and say to this people: When you hear what I say, you will not understand. When you see what I do, you will not comprehend.

- For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear, and they have closed their eyes- so their eyes cannot see, and their ears cannot hear, and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them.'
- So I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it."

29

- 30 For the next two years, Paul lived in Rome at his own expense. He welcomed all who visited him,
- boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one tried to stop him.

KJV

- 1 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.
- And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
- And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
- And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
- 5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.
- Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
- In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.
- And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.
- 9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:
- Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.
- And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.
- 12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.
- And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
- Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.
- And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.
- And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.
- And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
- Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
- But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

- And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.
- But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
- And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.
- 24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
- And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,
- Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
- For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
- Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.
- And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.
- 30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him,
- Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.
