ESV	And when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people, for all were praising God for what had happened.
NIV	After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened.
NLT	The council then threatened them further, but they finally let them go because they didn't know how to punish them without starting a riot. For everyone was praising God
KJV	So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.
