| ESV    | I saw all the living who move about under the sun, along with that youth who was to stand in the king's place.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
