| Hebrew | פְּנִים         hebrew         Meaning:         * Face * Presence * Front or surface         Noun. Masculine. Although it looks plural in form (ending in -ים), it is almost always used as a singular in meaning - a type of plural of intensity or plural of form common in Hebrew for body parts that come in pairs or have multiple aspects. אֶתְּךָ         hebrew         The Hebrew אֶת word does not have a corresponding word in English. In Hebrew, it is a marker of the accusative, i.e. the word following it is the object of the sentence. It only ever occurs in conjunction with nouns associated with the definite article הַ. | ESV    | They were haughty and did an abomination before me. So I removed them, when I saw it.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| NIV    | They were haughty and did detestable things before me. Therefore I did away with them as you have seen.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| NLT    | She was proud and committed detestable sins, so I wiped her out, as you have seen.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
