Ezekiel 17:7

ייי plugin-autotooltip_default plugin-autotooltip_bign

The Hebrew m, word does not have a corresponding word in English. In Hebrew, it is a marker of the accusative, i.e. the word following it is the object of the sentence. It only ever occurs in conjunction with nours associated with the definite article n, Genesis 1:1 nyeo mysoc.

And there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage, and behold, this vine beek its roots toward him and shor forth its branches toward him from the bed where it was planted, that he might water it.

That there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. The vine now sent out its roots toward him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water.

But the a worder great eagle came with broad wings and full plumage. So the vine row sent its roots and branches toward him for water.
