| Hebrew | hebrew The Hebrew אֹתְּ word does not have a corresponding word in English. In Hebrew, it is a marker of the accusative, i.e. the word following it is the object of the sentence. It only ever occurs in conjunction with nouns associated with the definite article הַ.Genesis 1:1 הַבְּרִית |
| ESV    | You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who has sinned through error or ignorance; so you shall make atonement for the temple.                                                                                                                                                              |
| NIV    | You are to do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance; so you are to make atonement for the temple.                                                                                                                                                        |
| NLT    | Do this also on the seventh day of the new year for anyone who has sinned through error or ignorance. In this way, you will purify the Temple.                                                                                                                                                                       |
