| ESV    | No one enters suit justly; no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| NIV    | No one calls for justice; no one pleads his case with integrity. They rely on empty arguments and speak lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| NLT    | No one cares about being fair and honest. The people's lawsuits are based on lies. They conceive evil deeds and then give birth to sin.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
