

Job 12:5

|        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|        | כִּוְנָן לְעִשְׂתֹּת שְׂאֲנָן זָכוֹן         Meaning * To be firm * Establish * Prepare * Set Verb. Occurs about 200 times in the Old Testament.                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Hebrew | Meanings by Stem Qal Stem (basic form) To be firm, stable, fixed, established. Describes something that stands securely or endures. Psalm 93:2 Psalm 103:19 Proverbs 16:9 Psalm 96:102 Samuel 7:16 Proverbs 16:3 Luke 22:321 Peter 5:101 Corinthians 1:8 Hebrews 2:3 Colossians 1:23 Matthew 25:34 לְמוֹעֵד יָגֵל                                        |
| ESV    | In the thought of one who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune; it is ready for those whose feet slip.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| NIV    | Men at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| NLT    | People who are at ease mock those in trouble. They give a push to people who are stumbling.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| LXX    | εἰς χρόνον γὰρ τακτὸν ἡτοίμαστο πεσεῖν ὑπὸ ἄλλους οἴκους τε αὐτοῦ         Meaning * He, she, it * Himself, herself, itself * Same Personal pronoun (reflexive). Occurs more than 5,000 times in the New Testament. Core uses Function English Equivalent Typical Translation Example (Greek) Example (English)         ἐκπορθεῖσθαι ὑπὸ ἀνόμων |
| KJV    | He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

Job 12:4 ← Job 12:5 → Job 12:6

Return to: Home Page → Christianity → Bible → Old Testament → Job → Job 12

From:
<https://groveserver.com/bible/> - BibleWiki

Permanent link:
https://groveserver.com/bible/doku.php?id=job\_12:5

Last update: 2025/10/23 00:28

