The Hebrew אין word does not have a corresponding word in English. In Hebrew, it is a marker of the accusative, i.e. the word following it is the object of the sentence. It only ever occurs in conjunction with nouns associated with the definite article ב-Genesis 1:1 האתפול האונים האינים האינים

|s army seport, nightexty a 0*/yok nighty and 1 has a second to the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:

| Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:

| So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written there:

| So my God gave me the idea to call together all the nobles and leaders of the city, along with the ordinary citizens, for registration. I had found the genealogical record of those who had first returned to Judah. This is what was written there
