| 1 | Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;                 |
| 2 | but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.                                                              |
| 3 | He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. |
| 4 | The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.                                                                               |
| 5 | Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;                                             |
| 6 | for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.                                                                |

| 1 | Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.            |

| 4 | Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.                                                                           |

|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers.                |
| 2 | But they delight in the law of the LORD, meditating on it day and night.                                                                |
| 3 | They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season. Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do. |
| 4 | But not the wicked! They are like worthless chaff, scattered by the wind.                                                               |
| 5 | They will be condemned at the time of judgment. Sinners will have no place among the godly.                                             |
| 6 | For the LORD watches over the path of the godly, but the path of the wicked leads to destruction.                                       |

| 1 | Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.                                 |
| 2 | But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.                                                                                       |
| 3 | And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. |
| 4 | The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.                                                                                                     |
| 5 | Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.                                                                        |
| 6 | For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.                                                                                         |

Psalm 1:4-5 Not so the evil! They are blown, like dust before the breeze; They will not stand when God makes known His judgment's firm decrees.
